He wanted to know "if any free, reasonable people could reconsider this conclusion". The Supervisors explained to him again that they can not changed the decision of the Zoning Hearing Board. Solicitor Sharon Myers told him he still has time to appeal the decision if he does not agree with it and once a decision is made it is up to the township to enforce the conditions of the decision. He asked if a door is open longer than someone thinks it should be and reports him, does that mean his permit will be immediately revoked. Supervisor Anderson replied that the township does not work that way, they try to work with their residents. Solicitor Myers explained to him that if a complaint is made the Zoning Officer would send a letter in regards to a violation and the issue would need to be corrected.
