Subdivision Plans:

Resident Clifford Weaver, of Baltimore Pike and his attorney questioned if property at 69 Reynolds Rd had a building right. Supervisor Dan McGregor advised them to follow the procedure to go first to the Washington Township Planning Commission and they can research the history of that property.

Realtor, Patrick Shaffer representing Monte Bordner, asked if there were building rights to Monte's property on the west side of Baltimore Pike. Monte is interested in selling the land as one parcel, but would like to inform a potential buyer if the land could be subdivided. Supervisor Dan McGregor advised them also to follow the procedure to go first to the Washington Township Planning Commission.

Business from the Floor:

Attorney Chuck Hobbs introduced himself to the Supervisors and residents. He is running for York County Common Pleas Judge.

Old Business:
