Subdivision Plans:

There were no plans presented.

Business from the Floor:

Residents Joseph & Heather Spicer of 9295 Carlisle Rd were present to discuss the Township boundary line for their property. When they purchased the property their deed stated they were in Washington Township. They now want to be in Warrington Township so their children can go to Northern School District. The Solicitor stated that the Township engineer could research the issue and prove where the Township line is. The Supervisors will get back to them on this matter.

Corporal Mohn from the Pa State Police was present to report on calls from November thru April. There were 158 varieties of calls with the majority of the calls being traffic related. Supervisor Dan McGregor asked if they could increase coverage on Bakers Watering Trough Rd due to the detour in Adams County on Stoney Point Rd.
