New Business:

Supervisor Harlen Anderson, Jr. made a motion to have the Secretary advertise for bids for various stones, road oil, hot mix black top and fuels. Bids will be opened at next months' meeting on April 19 around 7:15 P.M. Supervisor Ralph McGregor seconded the motion.

Supervisor Dan McGregor reminded residents that Ag Security applications are due in the office by June 1st.

The Supervisors reviewed information from York County Planning, Tax Assessment and Recorder of Deeds for two processes to correct certain real estate issues that need corrected. The CAP process (Corrective Action Process) involves land ownership between two different parcel owners. The COM process (Common Ownership Merger) is when the same owner of multiple parcels wishes to combine them into a single parcel. The review fee is set at $250.00. If implemented, it would begin in April of 2021. Solicitor Sharon Myers will check if a resolution is needed for final approval of these procedures. Also, she will check to see if the Township needs to set a fee to be paid to the Township.

Information for the York County COVID-19 vaccine website was provided to the residents. It will be on the bulletin boards and the Township's website.

Solicitor's Report:

Solicitor Sharon Myers had nothing additional to discuss.
