Business from the Floor:

Residents Don & Beth Miller had questions regarding the property at 473 Kralltown Rd that is listed as a commercial property for sale. Solicitor Sharon Myers discussed options and advised Mr. Miller that he will need to apply for a special exception through a zoning hearing, if he would like to purchase the property to move his current business there. There were previous hearings for the business and the apartment that are currently there.

Wellsville Fire Company President, Sandy Brown, presented the Supervisors with the latest minutes from the Fire Company. She also informed them of an upcoming meeting with Warrington Twp Supervisors regarding an increase in funding.

Resident Caroll Myers asked if a crime page could be added to the Township's website. The Supervisors are not interested in supplying that information because of not being accurate.

Old Business:

The Supervisors discussed the information from Attorney Daniel Cohen for a York County

Consortium, for the renewal of the Comcast Agreement. They would like the Secretary to set up a time to talk with Mr. Cohen and also the representative with Comcast. Solicitor Myers reminded them of the March 31, 2022 deadline to join the Consortium.
